- School Service

School service may be required of students when an administrator believes that it would allow the student to understand the logical consequences of his/her conduct. Examples include, but are not limited to, cleaning after vandalism or littering, helping a teacher after disrupting a class, etc. School service will not be utilized to augment the district's workforce, in ways which are likely to endanger a student, or in a manner which is designed to unduly embarrass a student.

- Corporal Punishment

Corporal punishment may be administered at the discretion of the school administration. Prior to administering corporal punishment, the administrator will explain to the student the offense he/she is alleged to have committed and allow the student to explain his/her version of events.

Corporal punishment must be administered by a school administrator in a private office area with another certified employee serving as a witness. If possible, the witness will be the same gender as the student. Corporal punishment will only be administered to a student's buttocks with a finished wooden paddle after the student has emptied his/her pockets. No student will receive more than 3 swats per incident, and no more than 3 swats per day. The corporal punishment must be reasonable in force considering the student's age, sex, physical and mental condition, whether the force was degrading and the likelihood of permanent harm to the student.

Corporal punishment will not be administered to any student identified with a disability in accordance with the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).

A report must be completed by the administrator and signed by both the administrator and the witness. The report will specify the infraction, the number of swats given, the date, time and location of the corporal punishment and the name and position of the witness.

Parents who object to the use of corporal punishment for their student must notify the school principal, in writing, at the beginning of each school year.

- Out of School Student Suspension

Students may be suspended out of school pursuant to the district's policy regarding student suspension.
